

Simon on the beam - Bayfield

Eavestrough (gutters in American) supplies arrive

Attaching the downspout

That would be Bradley's backside

Cabinetmakers working on the island

More cast iron registers have been finished

Cold air registers (Tremclad hammered finish paint)

Paint room in the original basement

A seat on the deck for viewing the Bayfield River

Looks like rain, we'll see how they work.

In the Master Bathroom

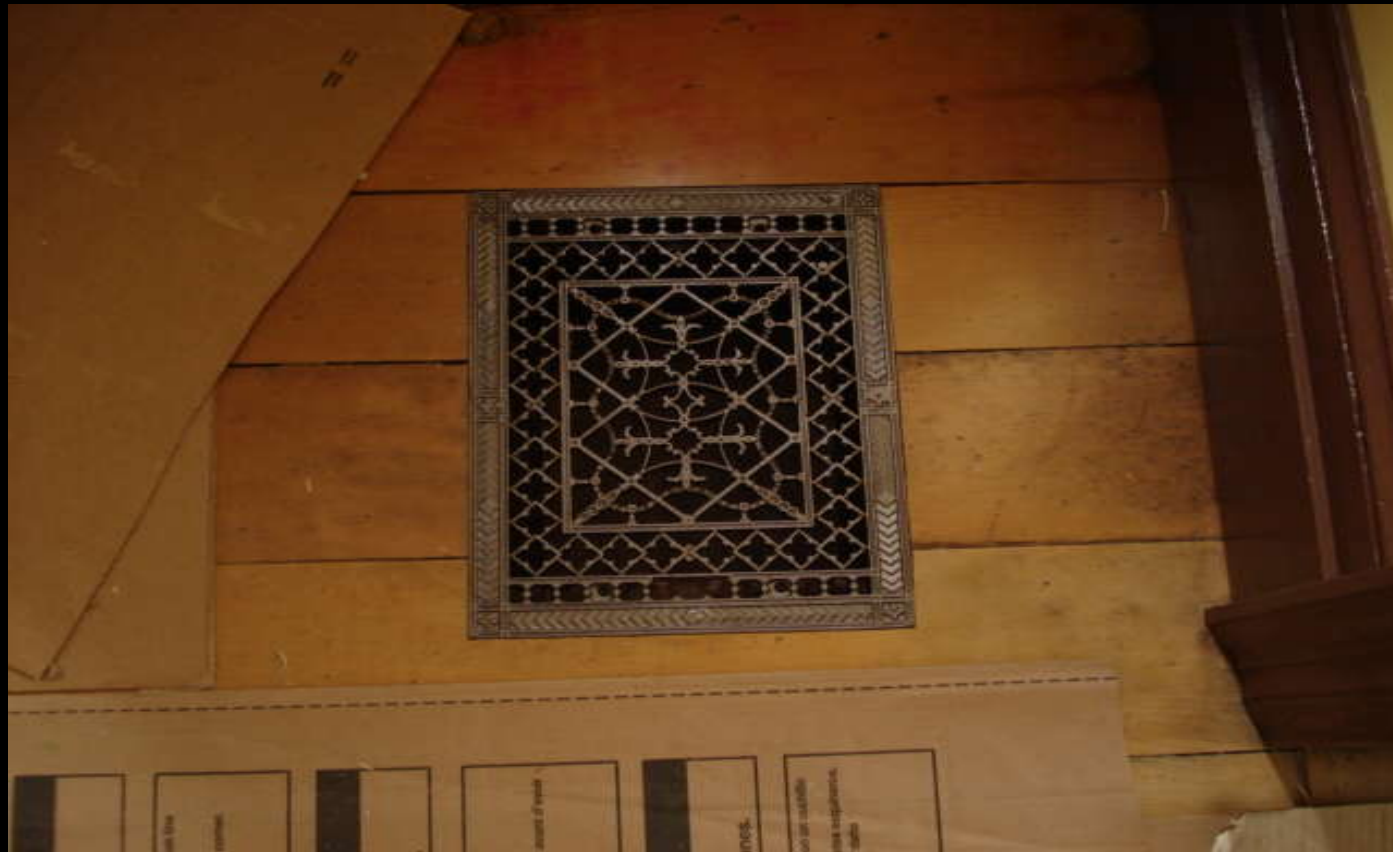

Another register at the other end of the room

Cold air register in the front entranceway

A very fancy hot air register at the front door

Cupboard blue interior

This register will draw hot air off the ceiling

End caps for the stair treads

Match the numbers!

Upper cabinets hold the microwave

Ready for the cooktop

Bar top for the island

A bit of glue and a bunch of brads will hold

The guard dog wants your boots!

“D.N.S.” Miller is on site!

Lots of clothes & tools – where's the plumber?

Why he's under the sink!

Moaning and groaning going on under there

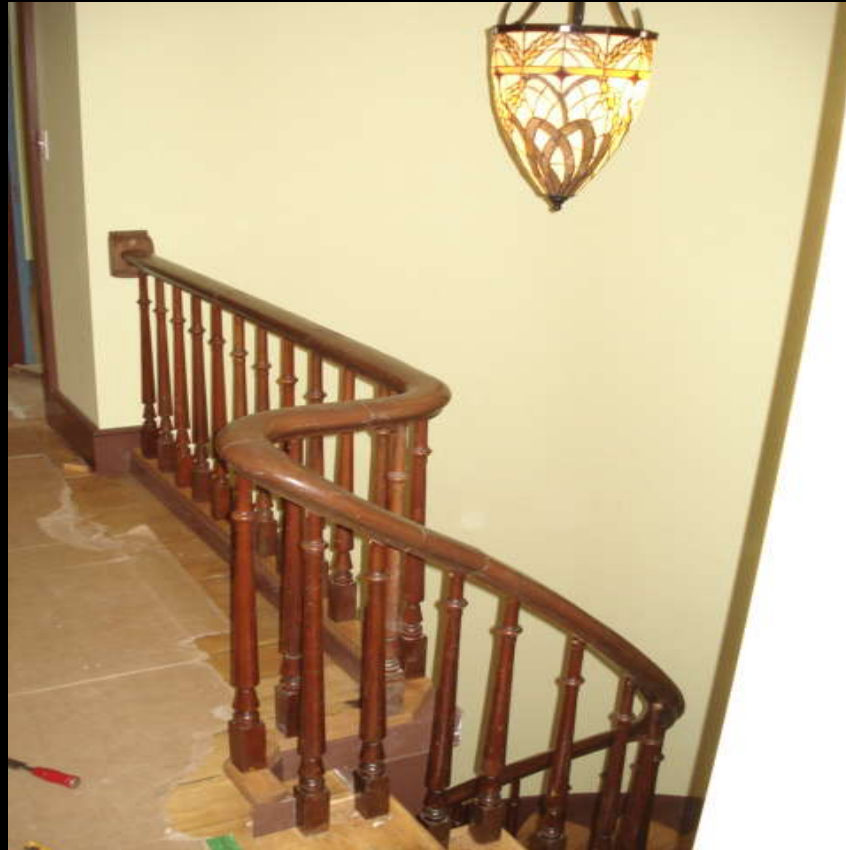

A light for the staircase

Finishing the upper railing

Quite the twist and turns

“J.C.” uses my coat for a bed (cause it’s near my lunch pail!)

Brick base in the fireplace

Window for the original basement
