

Foundation tarred to waterproof

Backfilling garage

Eavestrough tile connected

Gravel inside, clay & gravel outside

Bank tilestone over footing tile

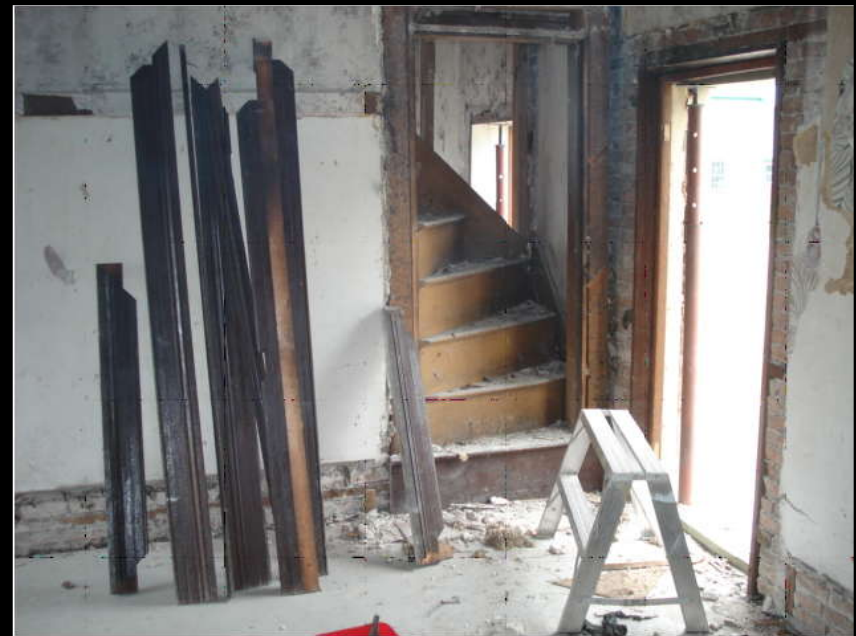

Stone placed through a chute into the old basement before concrete

Baseboard, casings, doors & trim

Stripping inside trim and flooring

Pine floorboards removed – note the wooden blocks in the brick for attaching the baseboards – brick rubble

Holes dug for floor piers

Very wet corner in the Pantry

Stairs to upper floor

Signed pine board – “ Jack Young of Kinburn 06 “

Flowers by the front door

Edging for basement floor, forming for the kneewall cap

Vibrate the concrete and then float it in the basement

Brad floating the floor

Second truck feeding conveyor, then pouring through a window

Pads for beam piers

Dave smoothing pads and then “Buffy” walks through concrete

Power trowel basement floor

Sweaty hand trowelling

June 9 2008 Pouring basement steps and floor with conveyor

Through the door, into the old basement floor area

Steps poured, stone wall was repaired over the weekend

Take out the window and shovel dirt outside to pour piers

Building the floor for the link

Truckload of lumber for framing the garage and link walls, pressure treated lumber for old house floor framing

