

Finishing the plywood roof sheathing on garage & link

Lunch – “J.C.” joining in

Ready for shingling

Noon on the Bayfield River

Lunch over, materials arriving

Shingles for the roof

Swing the lumber to the other side

Set it down gently on pilers

One side done

Finish the River side, clean up

Open web joists, clear span 23'

View from the basement

Under the joists, stairs to basement in the original house

Plywood and wall studs arrive – “J.C.” is under the lumber pile

Nailing in the strongbacks

Floor system installed

End of the day, cover everything up

5/8" T&G plywood floor installed

Shady spot, last piece installed

Ice & watershield, valley flashing, starter and shingles installation

First wall section goes up on main floor family room/kitchen

Hot as a pistol, sun reflection on the floor deck

Leaving for the weekend, the girls are examining the progress

