

The Farm – May 2008

The Bayfield River (rear of house)

Springtime at the Bayfield River

Time to demolish the addition

Strip inside, windows, doors, trim

“J.C.” helps – square nails in jamb

Squirrel nest made of wallpaper filling cavity above the window

Lots salvaged – lots of waste

Strip the steel, pile everything up

More leaves, everything green

Handmade crown moulding, all with square nails.

Almost down

A legacy of tulips

Treasure under the door sill

1875 penny under the sill

Treasures gathered

Joists removal – cistern - finished
