

Dec. 28 2008 major flooding

Scott's shadow

Sanding the upper hall floor

Sewing room floor

The inspector

Bedroom floor

This flooring came from the living room below (1843)

June has come to paint T&G ceiling boards rescued from the Barn granary

“Buffy” barrier

1843 square nail taped to an 1860 board – Ken's scribe

Watching June painting

Pantry ceiling – around the bend

Wiring for ceiling lights

Note at the top of the stairs

Hallway floor is finished sanding

Final details to sewing room floor

Ready for Varathane

Vacuum the dust

Clean as a whistle – not the lens!

A pair of vacuums for cleaning up

Towards the closet

I'd really like to go upstairs

First coat on the ceiling boards

Follow the curved wall

June hard at work in my old shirt

Granary boards for the ceiling came from this Barn

Ice roof on corn stalk pillars

Mother Nature's construction

Back home to greet the New Year

